KS2 SATs headline measures

Overall, results are very positive when comparing to national averages. The Trust has outperformed national comparators in all subjects. When comparing results to 2023 however, overall results have fallen in all areas (except science which remains static). Reading is the highest performing subject, although EGPS has the highest % of pupils achieving GDS, the highest scaled score and the greatest variance to national results. Of all the subjects Maths and Writing are the lower performing subjects, although the variance to national is still relatively positive (Maths 6%, writing 6.7%)
